

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

XIV European Symposium on Platelet and Granulocyte Immunobiology

May 26-28, 2016 in Stockholm Sweden

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

on behalf of the Local Scientific Committee I would like to welcome you at the XIVth European Symposium on Platelet and Granulocyte Immunobiology, to be held on May 26-28, 2016 in Sweden. The Symposium venue will take place at Skogshem & Wijk, a Congress Center located by the sea 14 km outside the city of Stockholm www.skogshem-wijk.com.

We plan an interesting scientific program, including clinical aspects, starting at 10 am Thursday 26th and ending at 4.00 pm Saturday 28th. Sunday will be free for visiting the beautiful city of Stockholm. Save the date, more information will come after summer.

We hope to see you in Stockholm 2016!

Welcome

Agneta Wikman

President of the Symposium
